EDITORIAL

November is the Month of Documentary (“Mois du film documentaire”), an invitation to look closer at the world around us.

At IFI, four documentaries offer a window on real lives: the restless voices of a young generation in Coconut Head Generation, an investigation into memory and cinema in Le cinquième plan de La Jetée, the tender ties between mothers and daughters in Dites-lui que je l’aime.

Then, from November 22 to December 1, the Festival Sinema Prancis 2026 takes center stage across Indonesia, with screenings in Cinema XXI theaters and throughout the French cultural network.

Under the theme ICONS, this edition retraces the journeys of the figures who shape our culture, alongside a carefully curated selection of recent French films, including highlights from Cannes.

See you at the cinema!

Le Cinquième Plan de la Jetée

FRI 6 NOV 19:00

DOCUMENTARY

EN The director's cousin, Jean-Henri, recognizes himself in Chris Marker's La Jetée. There he is, seen from behind with his parents on the terrace at Orly, in the film's fifth shot. There is no doubt in his mind: he recognizes his protruding ears. And if it really is him, then he is the film's hero as a child...

BI Jean-Henri, sepupu sang sutradara, mengenali dirinya dalam film La Jetée karya Chris Marker. Ia tampak dari belakang, bersama kedua orang tuanya di teras Orly, dalam gambar kelima film tersebut. Ia sama sekali tidak ragu: ia mengenali telinganya yang menyembul keluar. Dan jika memang benar itu dirinya, berarti dialah tokoh utama film tersebut saat masih kecil...

FR Le cousin de la réalisatrice, Jean-Henri, se reconnaît dans « La Jetée » de Chris Marker. Il est là de dos, avec ses parents sur la terrasse d'Orly dans le cinquième plan du film. Aucun doute, il reconnaît ses oreilles décollées. Et si c'est lui, il est le héros du film, enfant...
