EDITORIAL

As Indonesia celebrates its independence this month, our cinema program turns to stories of resistance, resilience, and alternative paths.

From European institutions to urban Kinshasa, from rural France to Marseille's northern suburbs, the films explore political awakening (Une affaire de principe), social unrest (La Fracture), artistic rebellion (Système K), and the search for dignity on the margins (Pétaouchnok, En nous, Au revoir les enfants). Each offers a unique lens on how individuals confront the systems that shape — and sometimes confine — their lives.

We close the month with a special After Hours screening of D'Est* by Chantal Akerman, in collaboration with the Jakarta Cinema Club. A hypnotic, meditative journey through Eastern Europe at the end of the Cold War, D'Est remains one of Akerman's most profound and unforgettable works.
