EDITORIAL

October at IFI will be marked by two highlights celebrating French creativity in all its diversity: gastronomy and animation.

From October 1 to 13, IFI presents Le Goût de France – Cita Rasa Prancis, one of our major annual events celebrating French gastronomy. As part of the program, we offer a special free screening of Cédric Klapisch's *Ce qui nous lie on October 7. This heartfelt family story set in Burgundy's vineyards will be accompanied by encore screenings of À la belle étoile and Linda veut du poulet ! as part of our IFI Films program, inviting audiences to experience the pleasures of French cuisine and culinary traditions on screen.

Later in the month, from October 20 to 31, IFI proudly hosts the Fête du cinéma d'animation. This annual celebration showcases the richness of French animated cinema, recognized worldwide for its originality and sophistication. On this occasion, we present a selection of remarkable works for all generations: Dilili à Paris, Le Roi et l'oiseau, Nina et le secret du hérisson, and Les Maîtres du temps. The program also features Josep, an award-winning animated film for adult audiences, presented in our The After Hours screening series in partnership with the Jakarta Cinema Club.

This month, IFI Films offers a journey through flavors, emotions, and imagination – from vineyards to fantastical worlds, from family stories to artistic visions that continue to inspire audiences worldwide.
