EDITORIAL

In May, IFI Films heads to the Croisette with a program dedicated to the Cannes Film Festival, the world's leading film festival and market. A sharp, vibrant selection of films presented in Cannes in recent years brings together bold storytelling, striking performances, and singular cinematic voices.

From the offbeat charm of Tout le monde aime Jeanne to the raw energy of Les Pires, the sweeping emotion of Un petit frère, the haunting resilience of Revoir Paris, the hypnotic tension of Pacifiction, and the biting satire of France, each film captures a different facet of French contemporary cinema. A special screening of Une aussi longue absence with the Jakarta Cinema Club – the Palme d'Or winner in 1961 – will complete the program.

This year, Cannes resonates especially strongly with Indonesia. The Critics' Week welcomes Next Step Studio Indonesia, placing a new generation of Indonesian filmmakers in the international spotlight. Supported by the French Embassy in Indonesia and IFI, this initiative highlights a shared ambition: to accompany emerging voices from Jakarta to Cannes.

A month of cinema in dialogue – where artistic visions meet, travel, and resonate across borders.
